The President Announces the Appointment of Richard Olney.

HARMON FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.

A Prominent Cincinnati Lawyer Whose Name Had Not Been Mentioned by Any of the Political Prophets—A Former Law Partner of Ex-Governor Hoadley.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The president late yesterday afternoon announced the following cabinet appointments: For secretary of state, Richard Olney, of Massachusetts; for attorney general, Judson Harmon, of Cincinnati. The announcement of the transfer of Attorney General Olney to the head of the state department created no surprise here, as it has been well understood for several days that Mr. Olney would succeed to the first place in the cabinet made vacant by the death of Secretary Gresham.

The president at one time contemplated other changes in his cabinet and a rearrangement of several of the portfolios, and in this connection consideration was given to the transfer of Secretary Smith to the department of justice, but this and other transfers were finally abandoned, and the president concluded that the simplest plan would be to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Olney's promotion.

The appointment of Judge Judson Harmon as attorney general came in the nature of a surprise. His name had not even been canvassed as among the probabilities. There is the best of authority for the statement that the president had several men under consideration, and the portfolio of justice might have been had by Mr. James C. Carter, of New York, who was counsel for the government in the Behring sea arbitration and the income tax case, or by Mr. Frederic R. Coudert, of New York, had they been disposed to accept it.

Secretary Carlisle knew Judge Harmon personally, and both admired and respected his ability. It was he probably who first presented his name to President Cleveland. Ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, a close friend of Judge Harmon, also warmly supported him, and the president secured also from ex-Governor Hoadley, of Ohio, who is now living in New York, and whose law partner Judge Harmon was, most favorable reports as to his ability and standing. After canvassing the situation thoroughly the president offered the portfolio of justice to Judge Harmon by wire yesterday afternoon, and immediately upon receiving a favorable reply announced the appointment.

Mr. Harmon has been for a long time judge of the common pleas court, and is a man of about 59 years of age one of the most conspicuous lawyers in the west. Upon the retirement of ex-Governor Hoadley, of Ohio, from his Cincinnati firm, upon his removal to New York, Mr. Harmon took his place at the head of the firm of Harmon, Colston, Goldsmith & Hoadley, the last named being a son of ex-Governor Hoadley.

Congratulating Judge Harmon.

CINCINNATI, June 8.—When the appointment of Judge Judson Harmon became known here attorneys from the courts and their offices rushed to the judge's office to congratulate the new attorney general, and asked for a date for a farewell dinner from the bar. Judge Harmon is not only recognized as one of the foremost lawyers and jurists of this state, but as one of the most popular citizens. He was born near this city, and has always lived here. He is known by all. His father, Rev. B. F. Harmon, was a Baptist minister well known throughout the Ohio valley. Judge Harmon graduated at Dennison university, a Baptist institution at Granville, O., in 1866, and began the practice of law in Cincinnati in 1869. He was a Republican till 1872, when he became a Greeleyite, afterwards allying himself with the Democracy.

Whitney and the Presidency.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Senator Smith, of New York, who is in the city, thinks that ex-Secretary Whitney is a candidate for the presidency. "He is certainly after the nomination," said the senator. "If all the talk I have heard in New York amounts to anything. Of course I am not committed to any candidate yet, but it goes without saying that Mr. Whitney would make a most admirable president. He is popular, he is conservative, he is able, and he would unite the Democratic party. I think he would poll the entire Democratic strength."

Another Defeat for Cuban Rebels.

MADRID, June 8.—A dispatch from Cuba announces several additional conflicts between insurgents and government troops. A large band of rebels surrounded a mill at Tranquilidad. The building was stoutly defended by an officer and twenty-five men. After fierce fighting the garrison made a sortie and charged on the rebels, who were defeated by the government forces at the point of the bayonet. Four of the rebels were killed, while a number were wounded. Four Spanish soldiers were also killed while only five were wounded.

Two Innocent Men Pardoned.

ALBANY, June 8.—Governor Morton yesterday pardoned Patrick Shannon and John Henry, who were sentenced in August, 1894, to imprisonment for one year in the New York penitentiary for the crime of entering a building with intent to steal. The pardons were granted on the receipt of a letter from District Attorney Fellows, in which he says "there is not a shadow of doubt that these two men were the victims of a fearful mistake. The real culprits have been arrested, and one has pleaded guilty."

NO CHANCE OF A SLIP-UP.

Increased Confidence That the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight is a "Go."

NEW YORK, June 8.—Dan Stewart, of Dallas, had a conference with Joe Vendig and W. A. Brady, Corbett's manager, yesterday afternoon. After they separated Mr. Stewart said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"I am now perfectly satisfied that the men mean business, and that the fight will be brought off in Dallas on the last day of October next. All the details have been arranged satisfactory to every one concerned, and nothing now remains to close the matter up except the posting of the guarantee of $5,000 from each of the principals. Mr. Brady has assured me that Corbett's money will be up by to-morrow evening, and Fitzsimmons or his representatives will also be on time with a similar amount. The people whom I represent are solid business men, and there will be no possible chance of a slip-up."

Samuel Friend, who is the legal adviser of Fitzsimmons, says:

"I am so busily engaged on the trial of Police Inspector McLaughlin that I cannot attend to anything else unless it is concluded. However, you can rest assured that the money to guarantee the appearance of Fitzsimmons in the ring will be in the hands of the stakeholder, Mr. Phil Dwyer, before many hours have elapsed."

A Famous Murder Case Recalled.

COLUMBUS, O., June 8.—The jury at Lancaster returned a verdict of acquittal in the case of Patrick J. Elliott, indicted for murder in the first degree for killing Washington L. Hughes. Elliott is one of the editors of The Sunday Capital, who several years ago set upon the editors of The Sunday World in a street fusillade because of an article published in The World. A. C. Osborne, a writer on The World, was killed, also Hughes, a bystander. W. J. Elliott was sent to the state prison for life and P. J. Elliott for twenty years for killing Osborne. The former had not been tried on the Hughes charge. The hearing in the case of P. J. Elliott was pushed in order to clear the way to a parole.

A Woman Brutally Beaten and Robbed.

UTICA, N. Y., June 8.—Miss Sarah L. Goodier, residing in the town of Litchfield, in Herkimer county, and who is quite wealthy, was bound and gagged by masked robbers late at night. The robbers awakened Miss Goodier, while she was in bed, and took her by the throat. When she refused to tell where her money was she was brutally beaten and left unconsciousness. The robbers secured gold and silverware, a sum of money and a note for $75, and escaped. After remaining unconscious for four hours she crawled to the home of a relative and gave the alarm. There is no clew.

Runaway Indian Boys to be Sent Back.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Philip Pratt and Victor Beitte, two Indian youths, one an Apache and the other an Arapahoe, arrived at the Indian office yesterday, fugitives from the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa. Some time ago they ran away from a farmer and on returning to the school were sent to the guard house. When released, they came here and asked to be sent back to their reservations. Instead, they will be returned to the school under guard. Their Indian names are Mietah, or "The Runner," and Niatoh, or the "Good Thrower."

Russia Will Not Fight Turkey.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 8.—The opinion prevails in official circles here that Russia, while doing the best possible under the circumstances for the welfare of the Armenians, will not risk a conflict with Turkey, as the development of the question in the extreme direction advocated by the English press would only endanger the quietude of Russian Armenia, thus proving prejudicial to Russian interests generally.

To Rescue Lieutenant Peary.

ST JOHNS, N. F., June 8.—The whaleboat Kite has been chartered to carry an expedition of ten persons to Greenland to rescue Lieutenant Peary, the Arctic explorer. Emile Diebitsch, Peary's brother-in-law, will have charge of the party. Mrs. Peary will not accompany the party, but will wait for the return of her husband at St. Johns. The Kite is to start about the middle of next month.

Favoring Central American Federation.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Dr. Horace Guzman, the Nicaraguan minister, in an interview said that he considered the plan of a federation between the five Central American republics perfectly feasible. "The republics," he said, "could be somewhat similar to the states in this country, and have governors. I do not think any of the republics would care to lose its autonomy, and there would be no necessity for it."

California Athletes Win.

CAMPAIGN, Ills., June 8.—The dual athletic contest here between the University of California and the University of Illinois resulted in a victory for the Californians by a score of 55 to 43.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

THE NATION'S WRITERS.

Next Week's Gathering of Newspaper Men at Philadelphia.

MANY NOTABLES TO BE PRESENT.

Scribes of the Quaker City Have Prepared a Varied and Pleasing Program for the Entertainment of Delegates to the National League of Press Clubs.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—The coming convention of the International League of Press clubs, which meets in this city next week, promises to be the largest gathering of newspaper men ever held in this country. The delegates will include some of the best known newspaper men in the nation. Among Philadelphia's delegates are Charles Emory Smith, ex-minister to Russia; Colonel A. K. McClure, the veteran editor of The Times; William M. Singerly, the Democratic candidate for governor last fall, and Louis N. Megargee, president of the Pen and Pencil club. Atlanta will send Clark Howell, a prospective United States senator, and San Francisco sends M. H. De Young, a journalist of national reputation. Murat Halstead, the hero of many presidential conventions, comes from New York, while Chicago sends Moses P. Handy, a former president of the famous Clover club and chief of the bureau of publicity at the World's fair.

LOUIS N. MEGARGEE.

A. K. M'CLURE.

Beginning next Tuesday forenoon at 11 o'clock, the business sessions of the convention will be held in Independence

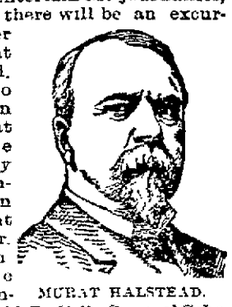
Hall, by a special resolution of councils temporarily suspending an ordinance prohibiting public gatherings in that historic edifice.

In the intervals between sessions of the convention an elaborate program has been prepared for the entertainment of the guests. This is under the management of a special committee of the Pen and Pencil club, aided by the Union League, the Mercantile club, the Trades' League and other municipal organizations, and includes a reception and banquet at the handsome new Mercantile club, a "Night in Bohemia" at the Pen and Pencil club, and a reception at the Union League club. This latter event will be second in the history of that famous organization at which ladies will be present, the first of this character being the one given to Robert T. Lincoln on his appointment as minister to Great Britain. On one night of the week the theaters will entertain the journalists, and on Thursday there will be an excursion on the river and a luncheon at Cramps' shipyard.

CHARLES EMORY SMITH.

W. M. SINGERLY.

Invitations to the banquet on Thursday night at the Mercantile club, tendered by the Pen and Pencil club, have been sent to prominent statesmen, generals and clergymen including Vice President Stevenson, Senator David B. Hill, General Schofield, Archbishop Ryan, Rabbi Berkowitz, Rev. Dr. Conwell, of the Baptist Temple, Rev. T. De Witt Talmage and Robert J. Ingersoll.



MURAT HALSTEAD.

MOSES P. HANDY.

A most pleasing feature of the program will be a trip by special train to Atlantic City, where the visiting journalists will be entertained by the city officials, who have prepared what must prove a very interesting and pleasurable program, including music, a reception, sailing and fishing, and a hop on the ocean pier. On Friday afternoon the visitors will be taken to Longport on a special train, the hop on the ocean pier taking place at night. All of the yachts along that section of the coast have been engaged, in order that none of the journalists may miss an ocean sail. A committee of leading citizens is aiding the mayor in his preparations for the reception and entertainment of the newspaper men, and nothing is being left undone to make the visit to the famous city by the sea one long to be remembered.

M. H. DE YOUNG.

President Megargee, the idol of the Pen and Pencil club, is a formidable candidate for president of the International League of Press Clubs.

Speedy Relay Cycling.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The great relay bicycle race of the red and blue between Chicago and this city was finished at 1:56 o'clock this morning. The actual time of the race was 65 hrs. 52 mins. The last relay should have reached the finishing point at Sixtieth street and the Western boulevard at 8 o'clock this morning. Arriving when they did, they broke all American records for a relay race. The great race was begun last Monday morning.

Disorderly Lawyers in Court.

NEW YORK, June 8.—During the trial of a civil suit in the court of common pleas, before Judge Daly, John S. Wise, ex-congressman from Virginia, and Albert W. Boardman, the opposing lawyers, became engaged in a quarrel in which "liar" and "blackguard" were frequently interchanged. They were subdued, but after the adjournment of court they would have come to blows but for the interference of friends.

Expelled Without Their Diplomas.

GROVE CITY, Pa., June 8.—Over half the graduating class at the college here were expelled yesterday for ducking a lieutenant of the college guards because he appeared in a new uniform. Today was class day, and barely a corporal's guard of the seniors received their diplomas. A number of freshmen were also expelled.

Formosa Becoming Orderly.

HONG KONG, June 8.—Advices from Formosa indicate that China is rapidly giving way to order, now that the Japanese troops have reached Taipehfoo and established quarters at that point. The natives of Formosa are submitting readily to the rule of the Japanese. The Japanese losses during the military movements in occupying the island amount to only eight men. The Chinese carried away millions worth of property from the Chinese fortifications during the firing which followed the detention of the steamer of ex-Governor and ex-President Tang Ching, who was making an effort to escape from the island. Seven persons were killed and seventeen wounded on the steamer as a result of the firing. The German gunboat Iltis replied to the bombardment from the fortifications on the Formosan shore, and the native gunners deserted their positions. The forts were quickly silenced. According to all reports thirteen natives were killed by the cannonade of the Iltis.

Dupont Will Claim His Seat.

WILMINGTON, June 8.—In response to a question by a reporter for the Associated Press, Colonel Henry A. Dupont, who received fifteen votes for United States senator at the final session of the general assembly, said: "I was surprised to hear that a report was current in the lower part of the state that I did not intend to claim a seat in the United States senate. This report is without foundation. I propose at the proper time and in the proper place to have an adjudication made, not only of my claim, but of the right of the people of this state to be fully represented in the senate of the United States."

Inspector McLaughlin Convicted.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The case of Police Inspector McLaughlin, on trial before Justice Barrett, charged with extortion, was given to the jury at 11:50 last night. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of extortion. Colonel James, the defendant's attorney, moved for a new trial, and also for arrest of judgment. The hearing of this motion was fixed for Monday, June 17, at 10 o'clock. Colonel James also requested that the commitment be made to Ludlow street jail instead of the Tombs prison. Justice Barrett refused this motion.

BLACK FOREST FLOOD.

Fears That It Is More Disastrous Than First Reported.

A TOWN PROBABLY DESTROYED.

The Flood Came Upon Kobersdorf, the Famous Hungarian Summer Resort, Without a Moment's Warning—The Exact Loss of Life as Yet Unknown.

STUTTGART, June 8.—It is officially announced that as a result of the cloudburst on Wednesday evening over the Wurtemberg portion of the Black Forest fifty lives were lost at Balingen. In that district thirty houses were demolished by the rise of the waters of the River Eyach, and many buildings were damaged. There has been another cloudburst over the same district, and the Eyach valley was again flooded. The damage done on this occasion is not known.

LONDON, June 8.—A dispatch to The Standard from Vienna gives additional particulars of the flooding of Kobersdorf, the Hungarian summer resort in the mountains. So sudden was the rise of the freshet that it was not realized until the bodies of the dead peasantry, pieces of buildings and furniture from cottages, came floating into the lower part of the town.

One of the remarkable incidents of the flood was related by some of the persons who escaped to the mountains. It was the story of the manner in which a cradle containing a sleeping child was forced down the mountain gorges by the rushing waters. The child was rescued with difficulty by those in the lower part of the village.

Owing to the damage to the wires, the telegraph lines being broken in many directions, it is impossible to ascertain the exact loss of life, but it is feared that the whole town has been destroyed. It is known, however, that twelve bodies of the inhabitants of this village have already been recovered.

Vienna Fears a Sunday Riot.

VIENNA, June 8.—It was intended that the socialist demonstration tomorrow should be prohibited. Thousands of workmen, however, have already decided to take part in the procession and it may be impossible to prevent a demonstration. The police have orders to do all in their power to stop the meetings of the socialists, and as the officials have recently been reprimanded for undue efficiency to those taking part in these movements, serious trouble is apprehended.

President Roosevelt as a Patrolman.

NEW YORK, June 8.—President Roosevelt, of the police board, yesterday did some police patrolling on his own account, attending to the business some of his men were neglecting. He found a dozen or more negligent duty, none of whom were acquainted with him. All were called to the president's office, reprimanded and warned that a repetition of the offense would result in dismissal.

Narrowly Escaped Lynching.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 8.—Patrick Conley, a villainous looking tramp, 30 years old, was arrested last evening charged with assaulting Minnie Prayer, a 10 year old school girl, who is terribly mutilated. A boy witnessed the assault and gave the alarm. A mob attempted to lynch him, but he was recovered by the police with great difficulty.

Death of a Noted Minister.

GENEVA, N. Y., June 8.—Rev. D. D. Buck, one of the most prominent Methodist ministers in this section, and at one time president of the American Bible society, died yesterday, aged 86 years. The deceased was an author of considerable ability, having written several religious works that received a large circulation.

The Income Tax Refund.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Blanks are prepared at the treasury department for use of persons who have claims against the government for the refund of the income tax. Few claims have as yet been filed, probably because the claimants have been waiting for official information on the subject. Every dollar of the income tax already collected will be repaid to the persons from whom the collections were made.

A Reverend Rake Located.

DETROIT, June 8.—It is stated here that the London police have located the Rev. Jonathan Bell, betrayer of Emily Hall, and that his arrest will depend upon the proofs regarding Miss Hall's death. C. Clipperton, a son of the British consul at Philadelphia, has been looking up the evidence against Bell in this city, and his report will be forwarded to the proper department at London.

Murdered His Murderer.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 8.—News reaches here of a double killing by negroes in Mecklenburg county. Ben Boyes and Will Kimball, who were employed on the same farm, quarreled. Kimball began shooting with a pistol and Boyce fell at the second shot, but when dying drew a pistol and shot Kimball through the abdomen. Kimball died almost instantly.

Frozen to Death in the Rigging.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—A special from Victoria gives an account of the wreck of the schooner Kodiak on Kodiak island; also the loss of the schooner C. G. White, of San Francisco, near the same place. Ten of the crew of the White were lost. Many were frozen to death while lashed in the rigging and others were drowned.

Three Killed in a Lead Mine.

FARMINGTON, Mo., June 8.—Three miners were killed at the Doe Run Lead company's shaft at Fall River by the caving in of a portion of the mine roof. Bart Lavares and Richard La Cue were killed instantly, and Robert Penberthy died in a few hours from his injuries. Another man named Dean was seriously hurt.

WAWAYANDA.

Potato Bugs Numerous and Destructive—A Light Hay Crop Feared—A Runaway—Prospects of a Good Apple Crop—A Fine Piece of Road.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—The potato buge, this year, are far more numerous and destructive to the potato vines than ever. Paris green is the chief antidote.

—Dr. Zhaya & Co. who are selling medicines for the Brooklyn Medicine Company, have a large tent erected in Slate Hill, this week, where, nightly, they hold forth, dispensing their medicines to "cure the ills that flesh is heir to," besides affording the audience pleasing entertainments.

—The late frosts, followed by dry weather, will tend to diminish the upland hay crop, this year. It is hoped that the grass seed sown, this spring, will not prove a failure, as has been the case for two years past.

—Last Tuesday afternoon, as the Misses Sutton, daughters of William Sutton, were driving a spirited team of horses through Slate Hill, and were passing the newly erected tent of the Brooklyn Medicine Co., the fluttering canvas frightened the horses so they became unmanageable, and started to run at a high rate of speed. The driver tried to hold the team in check, but the bit in one of the horses' mouths broke, and the team was past control. Fortunately, at this time, some active young man sprang to the ladies' rescue and stopped the frantic animals and thus averted what might have been a more accident.

—The apple trees begin to give evidence of a full-bearing crop this fall. Prof. Tooker has several trees of the Jo-Gee variety that hang full of the growing fruit, besides many other choice varieties, which give promise of a big yield, if no tornadoes or hail storms destroy the fruit.

—A. B. Sergeant is now having his tenant house, close by his residence, repaired by having the house re-sided, re-shingled and painted.

—A tourist may traverse the rounds—the highways and byways, and he will not find a road six miles long, which, for smoothness and proper grading, will excel Wawayanda avenue, leading from Middletown to the junctions of the South Centerville and Greenville, and Westtown and Unionville roads at Peter Holbert's. Ask the bicycle riders about the condition of the road and they will answer as the maiden said about her beau, "how splendid." There is no use of quibbling, road machines and interested farmers are what tell the story in having good roads.

Norway Willing to Compromise.

CHRISTIANA, Norway, June 8—The Storthing, by a vote of 90 to 24, has adopted a compromise resolution to the effect that while it is the intent and purpose of the Storthing to maintain a complete independence upon all national questions, public policy requires the immediate opening, with the co operation of the cabinet, of negotiations with Sweden looking toward the settlement of the consular and foreign questions.

Double Murder and Attempted Suicide.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 8—George Green, colored, instantly killed his wife and stepfather named Henderson Weaks and then attempted suicide Green's wife had left him, going to the home of her mother The woman was killed while asleep and her stepfather upon coming into the room when attracted by the pistol shots Green is still alive, but has two large holes in his head.

Tramp Probably Burned to Death.

WERNERSVILLE, Pa., June 8—The large barn and all the stabling and shedding connected with the Center House here together with the ice house and wagon shed, were destroyed by fire yesterday A tramp who was given permission to sleep in the barn is supposed to have set the buildings on fire, and some believe he perished in the flames

Law Favoring Veterans Upheld.

BROOKLYN June 8—The constitutionality of the Brush act exempting honorably discharged veterans from competitive examinations for any positions in the city or state departments, the salary of which does not exceed $4 a day, was sustained by Judge Gaynor in the supreme court

Brutal North Carolina Murder.

WILMINGTON N C, June 8—Lee Jones, colored, was brutally shot down in his store at Wilmington by John Dixon, his cousin Dixon walked into the store, and without saying a word fired a musket heavily loaded with buckshot Jones fell dead, his body was riddled, and Dixon fled to the swamps Pursuit was made by a posse of naval reserves in a boat from the Nantucket The shooting was the result of a quarrel about a trifling sum of money

Chris Von Der Ahe's Appeal.

PITTSBURG June 8—The attorney for Chris Von der Ahe, of the St Louis Baseball club yesterday filed a petition in court asking that a commissioner be appointed to take evidence in the case of Mark Baldwin, the pitcher, against Von der Ahe Baldwin recently obtained a verdict of $2,500 against the president of the St Louis Browns The petition states that undue influence was used with a juror in the case in favor of Baldwin The court appointed William Lindsay to take testimony.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and ends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

"RICHMOND HILL,"

the coming residence section of Middletown Only three blocks from Franklin Square, only 5 minutes from the post office. Broad streets, high land, good drainage, no railroads to cross, no necessity of expending $30 or $40 a year for car fare, or otherwise compelled to walk a mile. Every lot is inside the corporation; they are nearer Franklin Square than the Soldiers' Monument; they are about the same distance from the Square as Prospect street; other tracts being offered are three and four times farther from the business section than "Richmond Hill;" fifteen elegant new houses are now in process of erection; lots vary in size from 65x160 to 50x190, and on this tract is the highest point in the city of Middletown; prices low, and may be paid on monthly installments or a liberal discount for cash: 125 lots sold since January. —A water snake, five feet in length and six inches in circumference, which is supposed to have made its way from Fairchild's pond was killed, the other day, in the yard of William C. Allan, on West Main street, Monticello. The snake was making for the chicken coop when it was seen and killed.

—Ground was broken, Thursday, for the soldiers' monument to be erected in Monticello under the direction of the Supervisors' committee. The incorporated monument association will meet Tuesday to consider a design for the monument, which it proposes to erect.

REUNITED AFTER MANY YEARS.

There arrived at this station on train 1, Monday, a tall, well formed man, whose snow white hair and beard denoted that he had long since passed the meridian of life, but the firm step, erect form and ruddy complexion told that amid the battles of life old time had dealt gently with him. He was met at the station by three other white haired men who seemed almost boyish in their eagerness to welcome the traveler. He was David Moore, aged seventy-one, of San Francisco, Cal., and the three that met him were his brothers, Jas. C., or as he is familiarly called "Colonel," aged eighty, Bert, sixty-seven, and William C., sixty-three. In 1849 James C. Moore and his brother David caught the gold fever and crossed the continent in search of the yellow metal. James C., returned two years later and since that time, forty-four years ago, they had not seen their brother until the meeting on the depot platform last Monday.—Livingston Manor Ensign.

Putting in a System of Farm Water Works.

Miss Harriet Phillips, of Goshen, who owns the Wheeler farm, just east of the Chechunk bridge on the Goshen-Denton road, is putting in a system of farm water works. A reservoir has been built on the Varney farm, now owned by Mr. C A. Knapp, and from this about 2,000 feet of pipe have been laid to the buildings on the Wheeler farm with branches to watering places in the intervening fields.

MRS. M. S SCHOONMAKER.

A New York Woman Who Suffered for Four Years with Nervous Debility--Paine's Celery Compound.

"For four years I was a sufferer from nervous debility. During that time I took a great many remedies without getting any help until I tried Paine's celery compound. I took six bottles of that remedy and was cured. I cheerfully recommend Paine's celery compound."

So writes Mrs. M. S. Schoonmaker, of 80½ Jane St., New York City.

Too many women needlessly suffer from nervous troubles, not only in the cities, but everywhere.

Their whole world too frequently lies inside the four walls of their homes.

Think of the many persons, men as well as women, who spend most of their lives barricaded within the narrow confines of their dwellings. Summer finds them pale and tired out. Their store of nervous vitality has been slowly brought down by vitiated air and sedentary life. Their whole system needs a thorough replenishing. The nerves want nourishment, the tissues are not half supplied with material for the repair of of their parts, and the great vital organs must have richer blood to make them sound and active, and to keep them so. The nerves and brain need nourishment.

The power of refreshing and reviving every part of the languid body is what makes Paine's celery compound the marvelous strengthener and invigorator of this century. It is this same capacity to recruit the worn-out nervous system, to rejuvenate the blood that has enabled this remarkable remedy to help so many debilitated persons and to restore them again to firm health.

Rheumatism, neuralgia, pain in the region of the heart, debility and nervous weakness, showing itself in any of its myriad forms, are dispelled by Paine's celery compound. It feeds enervated tissues all over the body. It gives fresh vigor to the entire nervous tract, the brain, the large nerve centers in the spinal cord and the nerves themselves to their minutest ramifications.

It restores jaded nervous energy. It sends new blood coursing through the veins. It makes people well.

Turf and Horse Notes.

—Mr. Roy Miller, son of Mr. Guy Miller, the widely known veteran horseman, of Chester, is winning laurels this season. He drove his grand stallion Merman at Baltimore, last week, in a 2:13 class and won easily in three straight heats, the time being 2:15¼, 2:16 and 2:16½ Merman was only brought out last season and has been a winner throughout. Good judges think he will come down to 2:10. Merman is of the Hambletonian strain.

Will Develop a Quarry

From the Independent Republican

Hinchliffe Brothers, of Paterson, have purchased a tract of mountain land on the Houston farm, near Big Island station, on the Pine Island branch. On the tract are large quantities of valuable blue granite. It is the intention of the Messrs. Hinchliffe to at once set a force of men at work opening and developing the granite. These gentlemen have plenty of capital at their command, and will doubtless operate the quarries on an extensive scale.

A Great Improvement.

The Commissioner of Highways of the town of Wawayanda has done a good job on the road leading down the hill through the village of Denton. This bit of road has for years been the worst in the town, even a Sullivan county pathmaster would have been ashamed of it. It has now been rounded up and coated with gravel and the ditches opened, and is in fine condition.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure to get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Do. Testimonials free.

THE ONLY BIG SHOW COMING.

Wait for Sells Brothers' Enormous United Shows.

We can congratulate all patrons of the circus, which means nearly everybody, upon the coming to Middletown, Thursday, June 27th, of Sells Brothers' millionaire amusement confederation, the biggest, best and oldest show on the road. The progress toward the stupendous made by the Sells Brothers in the past twenty-four years has been marvelous. The small show with which they made a timorous beginning has grown to be a genuine public institution, now the largest on earth, well and favorably known in every section of the country, and everywhere patronized by the best people. It has even more than kept pace with the unparalleled general development, and ranks first among tented exhibitions. Its tremendous spread of canvas covers a regal Roman Hippodrome Race Track. Monster Fifty-cage Menagerie, Triple Circus, Huge Elevated Stages, Australian Aviary, Arabian Caravan, African Aquarium, Spectacular Pageants and Trans-Pacific Wild West Exhibit, and hundreds of exclusively exhibited features, brilliant performers and startling and ludicrous races and acts. Several huge special trains are required to transport this enormous melange of wonder and fun, and how so much can be exhibited for the one price of admission, twenty-five cents to all, including a seat, is an enigma which may be solved by visiting the greatest show on earth. Don't fail to see the grand street parade at 10 a. m., on the day of the exhibition, and judge for yourself as to its magnitude. Special excursions on all lines of travel.

A. E. NICKINSON, BUSINESS MANAGER

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1895.

As had been expected, President Cleveland, yesterday, announced the appointment of Attorney General Olney as Secretary of State and surprised the Cabinet and the country by appointing Judson Harmon, of Cincinnati, as Mr. Olney's successor in the Department of Justice. Mr. Harmon is a corporation lawyer well known in Cincinnati, and is believed to have been brought to the President's notice by ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, who is his warm personal friend. It is also said that he was recommended by E. R. Bacon, of New York, President of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railway, a personal friend of the President.

Brooklyn barbers have decided to test the constitutionality of the law that closes their shops on Sunday while permitting those in New York to be kept open, and will apply, today, for an injunction restraining the police from interfering with their business. The mind of the Brooklyn barber, usually clear and logical, is not clear and logical enough to see why it is that what is lawful at the New York end of the bridge is made a crime at the Brooklyn end. As the Brooklyn barber sees it, the gulf that divides right from wrong is a great deal wider than the East River.

Judge Gaynor in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, yesterday, in granting the application of a war veteran for a writ of mandamus to compel the Civil Service Commissioners to grant him a non-competitive examination for appointment as messenger in the office of Brooklyn's City Auditor, rendered a decision of great importance to veterans. He says that the constitutional requirement giving war veterans preference for appointment and promotion, without regard to their standing in the list from which the appointment and promotion is to be made, gives them an exclusive preference and holds that veterans whenever eligible must be appointed no matter what their standing.

CONFLICTING TIME TABLES.

The New Crawford Branch Schedule and that of the O. and W. Not in Harmony.

The Crawford Branch is controlled by the Erie but its trains run on the O. and W. tracks from the Main street depot to Crawford Junction; hence the Crawford train must conform to the O. and W. time table on that portion of its road.

Both of the railway companies named have recently issued new time cards. The O and W. has scheduled the Crawford train to arrive at Main street at 8:16 and the Erie at 8 10 a. m. Under this condition the train cannot be run on the schedule of the Erie road unless it receives a special order from the O. and W. dispatcher.

The same train coming in in the evening arrives at Wickham avenue at 5.52, but an O. and W. train is scheduled to leave Mechanictown one minute earlier and the Crawford train is forced to wait at Wickham avenue until the O and W. train has passed and is delayed from eight to fifteen minutes every evening. A change to about five minutes earlier in her time of arrival would save lots of trouble.

Unequal to Family Duties--No Appetite

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave Strength and Courage to Work.

"I was in such condition I could not walk even about the house to attend to household duties and care for my children and family. I did not have the strength of a child. I was treated by several physicians, who pronounced my trouble Scrofula and Female Weakness. I could eat only a slice of bread and drink a cup of tea, three times a day. Sometimes I could stand a soft boiled egg for dinner. I became reduced to skin and bones; at last they had to draw me about the house seated in a rocking chair. I was in a terrible state when my husband, having noticed advertisements of Hood's Sarsaparilla, urged upon me to give it trial. After taking one bottle I received sufficient benefit to know that I had at last found the right medicine. I have now taken several bottles and am able to

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the head, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

SUSQUEHANNA AND WESTERN

Wall Street Busy With Rumors—No Official Statement from the Directors—Emphatic Declarations of Individual Members of the Board That the Company is All Right.

The affairs of Susquehanna and Western were the subject of much discussion in Wall street, yesterday, and it was expected that the directors, who were in session in the afternoon, would make an official statement as to the company's financial condition, which would clear away the mystery that has recently enveloped the company. The directors said, however, after adjournment, that only routine business was transacted.

Individual members of the Board denied most emphatically that the company was in financial straits. Cornelius C. Cuyler, of the well known banking house of Cuyler, Morgan & Co., who went into the directory a few weeks ago as the representative of important interests, said:

"In spite of the bitter attacks made on the Susquehanna and Western road, it is in better condition to day than a good many apparently more prosperous roads. Our company has in its treasury $1 25 for every dollar that it owes.—that is, calculating the value of its securities at the present market prices. There has not been a word said among the directors about a receivership, and the floating obligations are so placed now that there will be no difficulty (with the present Board of Directors) in having them left just where they are."

President Berg and Directors Sully and H. W. Fuller spoke in similar strain regarding the company's financial affairs. All agreed that there was not likely to be any trouble about paying the interest coupons,—amounting to $93,000, due on July 1st.

The rumors concerning the company are all traced to a transaction in bonds which took place some months ago. The company placed several hundred thousand dollars of the $1,100,000 terminal mortgage bonds, which it had in its treasury, with a prominent banking firm, which was given a representative in the directory. The examination of the company's affairs made by the new director was not satisfactory, objection being made to the accounts between the railroad and an auxiliary coal company. These accounts cover a period of two or three years and involve about $250,000. The bankers demanded that the company take back the bonds and the demand was complied with.

Friends of the company assert that the bonds have since been placed with other banking firms but the incident was made much of by rumor mongers and resulted in the selling of much of the company's stock, especially the preferred, and has been made the basis of many subsequent assaults on the company's credit.

The directors of the company are men of the highest business standing and this circumstance has done much to discredit the rumors concerning the company and to retain for it public confidence.

Whatever floating debt the company has, about $800,000, has been incurred in equipping the Wilkesbarre and Eastern extension and completing the terminals at Weehawken.

An attachment for $2,405 was issued, yesterday, in New York, against the company as a foreign corporation. The company promptly gave a bond to cover the amount involved in the suit.

THE HYGIENE OF THE MOUTH

In a recent lecture before the Wistar Biological Associa tion, entitled "The Bacterio-Pathology of the mouth, and its significance in its relation to general diseases' Prof W D. Miller, of Berlin, stated that thirty two distinct sp cies of germs has been found in the mouth a d that these germs give rise to various diseases.

"Want of space" prevents us from giving Prof. Miller's lec ture in full, but the prac ical deduction is that increased care shou'd be devoted to keeping the mouth perfectly healthy This will be one of the features of "preven tive medicine" the dawn of which is evidently approaching The logical course for those who a tach importance to such things is to use our Ivo y Tooth Wash frequently and liberally It is antiseptic, purifying and cleansing in its effect, very plea ant to use and leaves a clean ta-te in the mouth whitens the teeth and sweetens the breath. OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sarah M. Skinner.

Mrs. Sarah M, wife of H. J. Skinner, who lives on the Stage farm, near Crystal Run, died there this morning, of brain fever, aged thirty-three years.

She is survived by her husband and three children John A., Ettie and Blanche.

The funeral will be held Monday at 10 a. m., from her late residence. The interment will be at Port Orange.

Alanson Kyrk.

Alanson Kyrk, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the town of Wallkill, died, this morning, of general debility at his home in Rockville, in his eighty-fifth year.

Mr. Kyrk was born near the farm on which he died. He was for a time in the hotel business at Westtown and Greenville, but most of his life was spent in farming. His wife di d several years ago. A daughter, the wife of Mr. A. Horton, of New York, died about twelve years ago. Of late years, Mr. Kyrk made his home with his grand-nephew, School Commissioner Willard M. Clark.

Mr. Kyrk is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Maria Green and Mrs. Leonard Tryon, of this city, and Mrs. Collard, of Goshen.

The funeral notice appears elsewhere.

The Celebrated.

Hunting's Circus, Museum and Menagerie were largely patronized and enthusiastically received by two great audiences which greeted them last Saturday. It is as superior to the average show as the cash-in-advance subscription list is to the old time pay-when-you-get-ready style. "It is a Jim Dandy and don't you forget it." One ticket admits to all these excellent shows, and either one contains more of merit than some whole shows of far greater pretensions. Mr. Hunting has the "cinch" on the show business and no mistake and we extend cordial welcome whenever the notion occurs to visit us again. The gentlemanly courtesy of all connected with the entire outfit is not one of its least commendable features.—Hartford, Conn, Courant.

OLD SCHOOL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Annual Session of the Warwick Association at New Vernon—Large Attendance and Interesting Meetings.

The annual session of the Warwick Association of the Old School Baptist Church was held at the New Vernon Church, this week, beginning Wednesday morning and continuing until Friday afternoon. The attendance was large, the church being filled at all the services.

Elder William L. Beebe, of Warwick, was chosen Moderator, and Elder Benton Jenkins, of Middletown, Clerk.

The visiting ministers were Elders William Grafton and F. A Chick, of Maryland; S. H. Durand and D. M. Vail, of Pennsylvania; J. G. Eubanks, of Kentucky; T M. Poulson, of Virginia, and J. D. Hubbell, of Delaware county, N Y.

WEDNESDAY'S SESSIONS

After the organization of the association the introductory discourse was delivered by Elder Grafton.

This was followed by the reading of letters from the churches composing the association; reading of correspondence from associations in other States, and the reading of the circular letter to churches written by Elder Beebe.

In the afternoon Elder Poulson preached from the 96th Psalm, and was followed by Elder Vail, whose text was the first nine verses of the third chapter of First Corinthians.

THURSDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The first business transacted Thursday morning was the appointment of messengers to other associations and correspondents.

Elder Jenkins, of this city, was appointed to prepare the circular letter to churches for next year.

It was voted to hold the association next year at the church in Middletown.

After the business session, Elder Chick preached from the 16th verse of the 20th chapter of Matthew and was followed by Elder Eubanks, whose text was the 21st verse of the third chapter of Genesis.

An intermission of an hour and a half was taken for refreshments, which were served on the grounds by the ladies of the church.

In the afternoon Elder Durand preached, his text being the first nine verses of the 17th chapter of Matthew. Elder Grafton followed in general remarks.

FRIDAY'S SESSION.

Friday morning the corresponding letter to associations, prepared by Dr. G. A. Emery, of this city, was read, after which Elder Hubble preached from the third verse of the 6th chapter of Second Corinthians. He was followed by Elder Eubanks, who chose as his text the second verse of the 32nd chapter of Isaiah.

After the intermission for refreshments Elder Chick preached from the 16th and 17th verses of the second chapter of Second Thessalonions.

Closing remarks were made by Elder Poulsen and the moderator and the association adjourned.

Elected Vice President of the Trust Company.

The election of Mr. George N. Clemson as President of the Orange County Trust and Safe Deposit Company left a vacancy in the office of Vice President, which was filled by the Board of Trustees at a regular meeting, last evening, by the election of Mr. Frank Harding.

The position of Secretary and Treasurer will be filled temporarily until a successor is chosen.

To the Public

We notice in Thursday's issue of the ARGUS "A Card to the Public" from L. R. Evans, West Main street, stating that we and others have been using his name to procure orders for crayon pictures. We hereby denounce the charge as false as far as we or any person connected with this studio are concerned, and we further desire to inform the public that we are not connected with Mr. Evans in business or any other firm in town.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

The Production of Judas Maccabaeus at Music Hall Last Evening a Decided Success.

From a Special Correspondent.

One of the finest of the many good concerts given by the Goshen Vocal Society, was the one given last evening. Judas Maccabaeus is an oratorio that is comparatively little known, and while the choruses have not so much melody in them as those of Messiah, the work is filled with solos, duets and trios that are particularly attractorio. The Society was especially fortunate in its choice of soloists on this occasion. The soprano, Miss Frances Miller, has a clear soprano voice of great flexibility and excellent quality. Her execution was remarkably good. She sang the air, "So shall the Lute and Harp," with much sweetness and expression. Miss Roselle has always been a favorite with the Goshen audience and, last evening, deepened the favorable impression she had already made upon it. She was loudly applauded in the air, "Father of Heaven," which is the opening number of the third part She and Miss Miller sang several duets together most charmingly, the sweetest one of all, perhaps, being the one in the last part, "O, Lovely Peace."

The tenor, Mr. George Devoll, is one of the most thorough artists that it has ever been the good fortune of the society to secure. His voice is delightful and his phrasing perfect. The audience was in perfect sympathy with him at once. Every number that he sang was received with delight, which rose to enthusiasm after the conclusion of the air, "Sound an Alarm."

The bass has not a large share of the solo work in this oratorio, but Mr. Fellows filled his part very acceptably.

Among the most pleasing of the choruses were, "O, Father Whose Almighty Power;" "Disdainful of Danger;" "We hear," "See, the Conquering Hero Comes," and "Hallelujah, Amen." The Goshen chorus was ably assisted by the Middletown Oratorio Society, and, together, they did excellent work. It is much to the credit of the leader, Rev. R. B Clark, that in spite of many discouragements, he carried this work through so successfully.

One of the pleasant features of the evening was its coolness. On Wednesday the temperature in the hall was one in which no one but Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego could have been at all comfortable, but, last night, it was perfectly comfortable. G H.

THE APPROPRIATION ELECTION.

The Several Items Which the Taxpayers are Asked to Vote Upon.

As this Republican Common Council desires only readers of Republican newspapers to be kept posted in regard to official business and has violated the spirit of the charter by designating two papers of the same political party to do the official advertising, the ARGUS will try to keep its readers posted. We will publish free every day from now until the appropriation election, on June 12th, the following list of appropriations upon which the taxpayers have the right to vote:

Permanent street Improvement ...	$7,500
Thral Hospital	1,2 0

INDIFFERENCE.

Dear, I can bear your anger patiently,
And all the little pangs that it begets;
There lurks no meaning in your thoughtless threats;
They wound but slightly, though undue they be.
I can but wait your sunny self to see
Returned, and mourn meanwhile when care besets.
You do not find for all your woes and frets
A better exorcist in love and me.

But, dear, I cannot bear your coldness, no'
The cruel line of silent, tight closed lips,
And unlit eyes, as fixed as a stone;
How these do torture me none, none can know.
I drift unsuccored of all passing ships
Upon a bitter sea, unloved, alone.
—Edward W. Barnard in Kate Field's Washington.

APARTMENTS TO LET

It must be said that Anatole Pluchin was on the eve of getting married. These things may happen to anybody, and I don't mention the fact in order to ask your pity on his behalf, because his intended was a charming girl. Her name was Andree—delightful name! She was blond—agreeable color. She was 20 years and 7 months old—attractive age. She belonged to a family that was worthy of all respect, a fact to be considered.

That rogue Anatole! He knew the young girl was in love with him—madly in love with him. Had she not confessed to him that she would die rather than marry another? I know well that these things are often said and rarely executed. But in this case, although Andree was a blond, she was the owner of an energetic and decided character. Ah! mais oui. When she said things like this, her blue eyes darted terrible lightnings.

Doubtless it was this strong temperament that prevented her parents from making any objections and placing any obstacles in her way. There was no good talking to Andree!

"You know, mamma," she had repeated again and again, "I want this matter to be finished quickly."

"But, my dear child, there are certain delays and certain formalities"—

"The delays can be hurried."

"That is true."

"And the formalities can be simplified."

"I have no objections, dear, if it will give you pleasure."

"Then, mamma, let us consider the engagement as settled."

"Settled! Your lover has only exchanged a very few words with your father."

"You know that my father does what you wish."

"My daughter, you exaggerate."

"It is understood; let us waste no more time discussing it. I shall be married on the 10th of next month!"

"We shall see."

"Not the 11th—the 10th. It falls on a Saturday. I have already looked in the almanac."

"You have thought of everything."

"I'm thinking only of him."

"Well, he is a happy man to be able to inspire such an affection."

"When you were married didn't you have the same feeling?"

"The very same, my child. But perhaps my thermometer—that is the register of my feelings—was not quite so high as yours is."

"Well, now, mamma, let us start the campaign."

"Start the campaign? What do you mean?"

"Find an apartment."

"Is is possible?"

"You do not wish us to live in the street, I suppose?"

"No; but"—

"Tomorrow morning then we will start out."

"The"—

"Tomorrow, directly after breakfast, for apartments are sometimes difficult to find. Now, mamma, let me give you a kiss, you are so good."

She spoke the truth. Her mother was an excellent creature, and Anatole Pluchin was—well, his mother, her future mother-in-law, was of the kind that are nowadays seldom to be found.

The day following at the appointed hour Andree was ready to attack Paris and ransack it from end to end in her endeavors to find the nest—that is, the apartments—of her dreams. Her valiant mother was prepared to accompany her. The poor old woman had burned her throat with her coffee and had nearly choked herself over the sugar at the bottom of the cup.

"Forward march! En avant!" cried the joyous voice of Andree.

Young and inexperienced, she little knew what a terrible thing it is to hunt for rooms in Paris; to climb up dozens and dozens of steps and to undergo the searching questioning of zealous concierges and indiscreet portieres.

After an hour and a half of this exercise the unfortunate girl was exhausted. And her mother! She followed her daughter puffing like a grampus and dragging her legs after her as if they were logs of heavy timber! "Ouf! Ouf! Ouf!"

Then at length, "Mamma, look at that pretty house!"

"So it is."

"With a view from the back windows over the gardens."

"And a sign out"—

"Precisely. 'Apartment to let. Inquire within.'"

"Let us ask the price. I have an idea that it will be just the thing."

The price was just what the girl had judged reasonable for herself and her future husband.

"Let us go up stairs," cried Andree, who was delighted. "We can see over it, can we not?" she asked the concierge.

"Certainly, mademoiselle."

"Is any one living here now?" asked the mother.

"Yes, madame."

"Who?"

There was a second's almost imperceptible hesitation on the part of the concierge.

"A young widow, madame."

"Ah!" remarked the mother, "and I

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I hav'nt lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4½ inches and weigh 250lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

that has painful memories for her."

A flashily dressed girl opened the door in answer to their ring.

"These ladies desire to see the apartment," explained the concierge.

The girl made a remark in a low voice that escaped the other's ears. It was accompanied by an expressive shrug of the shoulders.

"Entrez," she said aloud.

Andree and her mother walked in. Everything most comfortable, ma foi, in this apartment. Quite a discovery, in fact. The furniture was commodious and elegant and placed each piece in the corner where it best belonged. And the appointments! And the cupboards! And the kitchen! And the arrangement of the light! The visitors were completely charmed.

As they turned a corner of the corridor the mother looked in the direction of Andree, who stood behind her, and said:

"Andree, I think it must be your good star that guided us here."

But she stopped suddenly.

"Why, where are you, Andree? Where can she have gone to? Andree!"

A distant and sorrowful cry came in answer.

"Andree. Mon Dieu! what's the matter?" cried her mother, alarmed.

This is what had happened: Andree, inquisitive little girl that she was, had turned down a passage and suddenly opened a door. She was curious to see what the room was like.

The door, it so happened, was that of a private boudoir. Inside, as she stood, pretty as a fairy, in the doorway, she saw a velvet sofa. On the sofa she saw, half reclining, a very pretty young widow with black eyes and a demurely sweet face. Kneeling on the soft Turkish rug beside her, with his hand upon his heart and an expression of eternal love upon his face, was a young man.

Andree heard no words, but the noise of opening the door caused the young man to spring to his feet and face her.

"Ah! Mon Dieu! Andree!"

It was indeed Anatole.

* * * * * *

Andree possessed a resolute character, as we know. She never saw Anatole again, and the amount the courts granted her for breach of promise of marriage is not exactly known.

In this way a mother-in-law who was anxious to do all she could for her son-in-law only succeeded in bringing about results that were a hundred times worse than the most bitter hostilities.

Such is the irony of fate, and doubtless it was best for the happiness of la belle Andree.—From the French.

Rubinstein Not a Happy Man.

Though his life was full of work and he was ever faithful to duty, Rubinstein was not a happy man. With each succeeding year he grew more and more pessimistic. Life failed to give him the amount of enjoyment he craved outside his art, and except in the society of women he did not seem even commonly happy. But for the fair sex he had ever a joke and a smile. It amused him to shock their feelings, and when they opened their eyes widely at his audacity he never failed to enjoy it. He believed that a knowledge of woman was necessary to an artist, and if a young aspirant to any artistic calling asked his advice his first question was, "Have you loved yet?" For he believed that a man who could not love was incapable of becoming an artist. He himself could not be accused of any failing in this case, for his loves were almost as many and various as his days. He had all the faults and all the virtues of his artistic calling, and in every sense of the word lived for his art and his fancy regardless of all things. His was a true bohemian nature.

There was a certain roughness, want of tact and even brutality in his nature that made itself disagreeably felt at times. His was not a temper to be tried. Up to a certain point he could hold it in check admirably, but anything beyond this caused an explosion of wrath that was terrible. As in his physiognomy, so in his temper there was much of the lion. Those who did not know him consequently feared him, for his personality was one that awed, especially in the latter years of his life.—Alexander McArthur in Century.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

SARSAPARILLA
Admitted at the
WORLD'S FAIR
CHICAGO
1893

Why Was It

that Ayer's Sarsaparilla, out of the great number of similar preparations manufactured throughout the world, was the only medicine of the kind admitted at the World's Fair, Chicago? And why was it that, in spite of the united efforts of the manufacturers of other preparations, the decision of the World's Fair Directors was not reversed?

BECAUSE

According to RULE 15—"Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition," and, therefore—

Because Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, and not a secret preparation.

Because its proprietors had nothing to conceal when questioned as to the formula from which it is compounded.

Because it is all that it is claimed to be—a Compound Concentrated Extract of Sarsaparilla, and in every sense worthy the indorsement of this most important committee, called together for passing upon the manufactured products of the entire world.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.
Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for thirty-three years and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system being affected considerable. I have often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for to break the tobacco habit.

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr James Reid, of the town of Burnside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to lose his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.
Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S. Sawyer, of Atlantic, County of Cass, State of Iowa, having been an inveterate smoker of tobacco, bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1894. Began taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit. "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man. Hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain, Yours truly,
WM. S. SAWYER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.
Gentlemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.
Yours respectfully, P. H. MAHBURY,
Pastor C. P. Church, Clayton, Ark.

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb. 4, 1895.
This is to certify that I, F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.
About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo." I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.
I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.
Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason I could not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. I did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then I bought the goods and thank God and all concerned, I am a sound person to-day. Hoping the same may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain, Yours respectfully,
F. D. KRAEMER.

HIS LITTLE SURPRISE.

But He Wouldn't Wait to See How She Liked It.

They had eaten a philopena, and as the result was doubtful they each decided to pay the forfeit, which had been left for the loser's own selection.

They happened to meet on the street that day, and as he turned to walk back with her he said:

"I've just come from your house, Miss Edith, and I hope you will like what I have left there."

"Oh, I'm sure I shall. You always have such lovely taste. I, too, have just sent you a trifle which I hope you may find to your liking."

"Oh, Miss Edith, you know I couldn't help liking anything you would select."

"Oh, I can hardly wait to go home to see what you have brought me."

"I, too, am curious to know what my present is. But where have you been?"

"I just came from May's. I had intended to remain all the afternoon, but that horrid little dog of hers made me so nervous that I really couldn't stay."

"Don't you like dogs?"

"Oh, yes, some dogs, but this is one of those horrid little pugs. I never could bear a pug."

"Oh, Miss Edith, I thought you"—

"Had too much good sense to like the horrid things? Thank you. I knew you would understand me. You always do."

"I—er—isn't that Dick Brownsmith coming toward us?"

"Why, yes, it is. What a well dressed man he is."

"Rather, yes—that is, barring his ties. I never could think anything of a man who wears red neckties."

"Why, I thought you"—

"Would never be seen wearing such a thing? Thank you for your good opinion. I won't."

"I—ah—well, here we are at home. You will come in, won't you?"

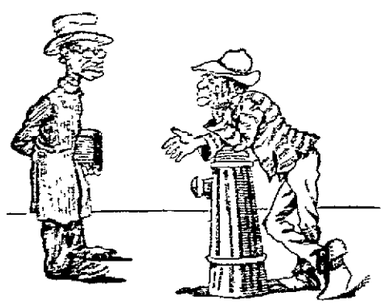
"Why, er—no—that is, I really haven't time. I—I must go home and see the loving gift you have sent me."

"Oh, don't be in a hurry about that. You really ought to come in and see my surprise and pleasure when I first see your charming present."

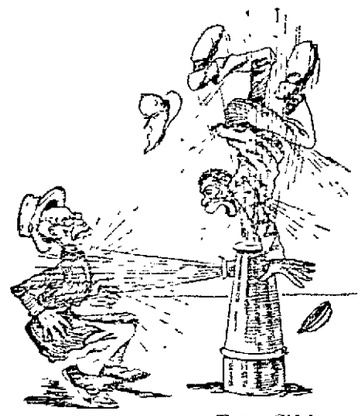
"You are sure to be surprised at any rate, Miss Edith," said the young man, with a sickly smile, as he backed down the steps.

His words were verified, for she found that he had brought her a pug, while on reaching home he opened a perfumed packet to find that she had sent him—a red necktie. And now they are wondering what to say to each other when they next meet.—Pittsburg Post.

A Presentiment.



"Yas, parson, dar's gwinter be rain 'fore night. I jist natu'ly feels it in my bones. My rumantis always tells me when dar's any dampness stirrin."



—Texas Siftings.

He Backed Out.

"Now, what do you want?" asked the sharp nosed woman.

"I called to see if I couldn't sell you some bakin powder," said the seedy gentleman with the straggling whiskers.

"Well, you can't sell no bakin powder here, and I ain't got no time to waste on peddlers anyway."

"Come to think of it, ma'am," said the seedy gentleman as he fastened his valise. "I wouldn't keer to sell you no powder. This here little dinky kitchen of yours is so low in the ceilin that the bread wouldn't have no chance to rise."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Passing Pucker.

A tear clung for an instant to her curving lash. Her lip quivered.

"I have quarreled with my husband."

"I thought you were two souls with but a single thought."

"That was just the trouble. I wanted to use it for spring millinery, while he wished to devote it to the new baseball rules."

All of which goes to further illustrate how foolish it is to get married without a second thought.—Detroit Tribune.

REASON OF THIS.

You would call a man a fool to try to run an engine with a crooked piston-rod. Yet you are attempting that when you live with your system in a disordered condition. Whatever you may be mentally, you are physically a machine. Nothing interests you more than keeping it in order. If your digestion is out of condition, or your kidneys are disordered, use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, a medicine prepared by a famous physician, and tested for years by thousands of persons, who all endorse it.

SOME FAIR CRITICS.

They Think It Is a Mistake to Tax Bachelors.

"What do you think of the bill to tax bachelors?" asked the girl who was preparing a paper on the artistic in politics.

"I consider it a direct blow at matrimony," replied the young woman who never mentioned birthdays.

"For mercy sake, why so?" twittered the girl who always told the nearest man she exactly agreed with his views. "Humph! It's easy enough for anybody to see. Man is the most obstinate creature in existence. Once let him get an idea that the state wants to force him into matrimony, and he will decline to wed Venus herself, though she be a daughter of all the Vanderbilts into the bargain."

"There may be something in that," broke in the girl whose soul was in her sleeves. "I once knew a girl who tried for two seasons to make an impression on the wealthiest man in her set. Thinking she had failed, she joined a society in order to become a member of which she was obliged to hold a redhot curling iron in her hand exactly at midnight and swear never to marry. The penalty of breaking her oath was to have a lithographed copy of a page in her family Bible inclosed with her wedding cards."

"How perfectly awful!" breathed the young woman who never mentioned birthdays. "Do tell us what happened."

"Oh, as soon as he found it out he declared he'd shoot himself if she refused to marry him, so they just eloped and sent out no cards at all."

"Stuff and nonsense!" said the girl who was preparing an essay on the artistic in politics. "But seriously it will be much cheaper for a man to pay $25 a year tax than to settle milliners' and dressmakers' bills every month, and the bachelors are not going to forget that either."

"Oh, as for that," gloomily remarked the girl whose soul was in her sleeves, "if we are going to wear men's shirts, ties, hats, collars, coats, vests and—er—bloomers, a man will soon be able to dress his wife in his own castoff clothes. Besides, who would want to live in an old maids' home anyhow?"

"I should," remarked the young woman who never spoke of birthdays, "provided the man I had refused because he was so stingy had to help pay for it."

"There's one thing sure," spoke up the frivolous girl in the corner. "It's going to make things awfully hard on us if that bill does pass. Take, for instance, the case of the man to whom you can't just make up your mind to say 'Yes' and still less to say 'No.' Why, he'll just take that $25 a year out of what he'd pay for flowers and candy while he was waiting for you to make up your mind."

"True," said the girl whose soul was in her sleeves, "but there's one thing we could do. We might get up a young woman's protective syndicate and keep strict account of the men who had been once or twice rejected. Then, in case they tried to dodge the tax by proposing to one of us, we might just accept and then throw them over. The bill makes no provision for broken engagements, I take it."

"None at all," said the girl who was preparing an essay on the artistic in politics. "But, as Amy has just said, the amount of the tax would be deducted from our perquisites in any case. I move we get up a lobby to defeat the bill. All in favor of the motion say aye. All opposed"—

"Aye!" cried a deafening female chorus.—Chicago Tribune.

Forestalling Him.

Briggs—Do you remember that $5 you lent me about 18 months ago?

Griggs—I do.

Briggs—That was the first time I borrowed anything from you, wasn't it?

Griggs—Yes. But not the last.

Brigg—Oh, no. Shortly after that you let me have $10 more.

Griggs—That's correct.

Brigg—Let's see. The next amount I borrowed from you was $5. I was going to the ball game at the time, and I had left my cash at home.

Griggs—A frequent occurrence. But that's right.

Brigg—About a month after that you let me have $25 more.

Griggs—I did.

Brigg—And then $10 more.

Griggs—Right.

Brigg—Then the other day you let me have another $5.

Griggs—Yes, and that makes $60 you've owed me for about a year on the average.

Briggs—So it does. By the way, old man, you couldn't let me have the interest on that, could you?—New York World.

A Lingering Trait.

"Yes," said one woman, "I have my mind made up that I will have a journalistic career."

"What duties will you undertake?" asked the admiring acquaintance.

"I'll be an exchange editor. I did think that I'd write editorials and edit the political news. But I've concluded to do exchange work. When you take two or three long articles and a lot of short ones out of a Sunday newspaper and then hold it up, it certainly gives you some lovely suggestions about dress patterns."—Washington Star.

Nine Months In Bed, Cured In Twenty Four Hours.

T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Blackmore, Pittsburgh, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of "MYSTIC CURE." It got me out of the house in twenty-four hours. I took to my bed with Rheumatism nine months ago and the "MYSTIC CURE" is the only medicine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. STORIES OF THE DAY.

It Was the Old Lady's First Ride, and She Was Terribly Scared.

On a train a short time ago I fell in with a number of Texans who had been on a visit to the older states. The conversation turned upon the primitive customs of some sections of the country, when one of them—an Alabaman—related the following: "The section of Alabama from which I come is very hilly, no uncommon thing to find hills there hundreds of feet high, and hence, when they built a railroad through that section, trestles from 50 to 175 feet high and from 50 yards to half a mile in length were no uncommon things.

"I was taking a trip over one of these roads one day, and the train had stopped at a small station in the pine forest, when an old gentleman carrying a carpetbag and accompanied by an old lady—evidently his wife—entered. They took the first seat, the lady sitting next the window. From the look of wonder and amazement depicted on their countenances it was perfectly clear this was their first railroad trip and doubtless their introduction to the iron horse. Finally the train started. The old lady turned her gaze upon the window, and as the train increased its speed the fear and anxiety she felt could clearly be seen. Just when it seemed her astonishment was at its greatest the train ran on to one of those long, high trestles. With a yell, the old lady bounded to her feet and clutched the back of the seat in front of her. There she stood, trembling from head to foot, perfectly oblivious to her surroundings and the sensation she was creating.

Just as the more thoughtful of her fellow passengers were thinking of going to her relief the train ran off the trestle and on to terra firma again. The old lady still had her gaze fixed on the window and was quick to observe the change. With this came the relaxation of her muscles, and a smile spread over her face. The climax of the ludicrous was reached when the old lady remarked in a clear and happy shout that could be heard in every part of the car: 'Thank God! She's lit again!'"—Chicago Times-Herald.

The Best He Could Do.

It was midnight on the Battery, as it was in other parts of the city.

And silence, frightened away by the noise of the day, had come again and was doing its level best to make up for lost time.

Standing at the most southern point of the island was a man, gazing out over the sea wall into the shadows of the bay.

There were lights dancing over the water, but he was not in a dancing humor, and he heeded them not.

Presently a policeman observed the motionless figure, and suspecting all was not right he approached the gazer.

"What's the matter?" he asked in a voice softly modulated so as not to scare the man into jumping over the wall.

"I'm from Harlem," replied the man.

"That's pretty bad," said the officer sympathetically. "Anything else wrong with you?"

"Yes, my wife."

"What has she been doing?"

"Making my life a burden. Kicking when I stay out of nights. Kicking when I stay at home. Yowing at me if I happen to hit a beer keg instead of a hydrant. Never giving me a minute's peace. Making my home a regular hell on earth."

"That's almighty tough," sighed the policeman.

The man groaned an accompaniment.

Then he gazed all about him wearily.

"What's that over there?" he asked, nodding to the east.

"Brooklyn," replied the officer.

"And that?" and he nodded to the west.

"Jersey."

The man turned slowly about and faced the north.

"Good night," he said hopelessly. "I guess I might as well go back home."—New York Sun.

A Capital Suggestion.

A correspondent sent the following letter to the New York Sun:

To the Editor of The Sun.

SIR—Inasmuch as Springfield, Mass., with a population of 50,000 has just opened a new art building, with lecture rooms, picture gallery and rooms for the display of art curios and the usual museum collections, costing $80,000, why is it not feasible for towns of 10,000 to own such buildings, costing, say, $15,000 each, towns of 5,000 to own buildings worth $7,000, and so on to the smaller towns? There are in every community many interesting and curious things, national, historical and artistic, and if these were collected together by purchase and loan they would constitute a valuable attraction to every community, at the same time acting as a place of preservation for thousands of articles of interest which are lost through carelessness, theft or general decay. I fancy there is scarcely to be found in the entire country such a local museum, and yet there should be one in every town. W. J. L.

BOARD OF WATER COMMISSIONERS

Proceedings of an Adjourned Session—Mains to Be Extended and Much New Pipe Laid.

The regular adjourned meeting of Board of Water Commissioners was held last evening. All the members were present, except Dr. Douglas.

The Board took up the matter of the extension of mains, and decided to lay pipe as follows:

Broad street, 404 feet of 4-inch; Albert street, 100 feet of 4-inch; Prince street, 449 feet of 6-inch; Prospect street, 400 feet of 6-inch; Ridge street, 275 feet of 6 inch; Robert street, from Cottage to North, 421 feet of 4 inch; Watkins avenue, from Prospect to Sunset street, 1,230 feet of 10-inch pipe.

A portion of these extensions will connect dead ends.

A 10-inch main will be laid from Wickham avenue out Cottage street to Wisner avenue, and westerly on Wisner avenue to connect with the main on Wisner avenue, running easterly from North street. This main will give better fire protection to the Ontario and Western shops, as well as supply the requests made for water on Cottage street, north of Wickham avenue.

Three hundred and seventy feet of 4-inch pipe will be laid on Liberty street, from the hydrant west of Wickham avenue to Lenox Place, and 250 feet of 12-inch on Liberty street from Wallkill avenue to Lenox Place.

There are 589 feet of cement pipe in the Courtland street main, which have caused considerable trouble on account of frequent breaks and the Board decided to replace this with cast iron.

A portion of the work ordered is in response to frequent requests from property owners for water service.

The motion passed at a former meeting, that the cement mains should be taken up and replaced with cast iron, was rescinded, the Commissioners believing that the work as now ordered is necessary to afford fire protection and to supply the present needs of a large portion of the city.

The extension on Prince street will be the first work taken up.

A copying press and Amberg letter file were ordered for the Commissioners' office.

The Board resolved that in the future the price to be charged for tapping mains shall be $2. The price heretofore charged was $4

The drinking fountain at Franklin Square was ordered replaced with one having a ball valve. This means that the Commissioners will erect a new trough.

Several matters for rebates on unoccupied premises were discussed by the Board, but no action taken on the same

A bill of the Hudson River Telephone Company of $2 50, for telephone service, was ordered paid.

A LEGEND OF OTTERKILL.

An Old Woman's Curse on the Erie Road the Cause of Many Wrecks.

From the Independent Republican.

There is a legend, handed down from one generation of railroad men to another, that the many disasters which have occurred at Otterkill are the result of a curse invoked upon the road by an old woman. Before the road was built there was a private cemetery at this point, so the story goes, in which the ancestors of the woman were buried and in which she had expected her body would be laid. The line of the road passed directly through the graveyard and to this she strenuously objected. The engineers were not men of sentiment, however, and they gave no heed to her wishes. Then she cursed the road and prophesied all manner of misfortunes for it, and there is no reason to doubt that to a very large degree her prophecy has come to pass.

Stage Versus Railroad.

Said Engineer Mintram to a reporter, this morning: "They're running a stage line to Walden to connect with the trolley road for Newburgh and expect to get most of the New York passengers to go by the way of Newburgh. In spite of the novelty of the trip we had more passengers on our train, this morning, than the stage had."

"And how many did you have? asked the reporter.

"One," said Mr. Mintram.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

Mr. B. B. Williams's Handsomely Refitted Store to Be Opened Tuesday.

Mr. B. B. Williams has about completed the refitting of his wholesale and retail liquor store, which was badly damaged by fire some weeks ago, and will open for business on Tuesday next. The store is now one of the most complete and convenient of its kind in this section of the State.

Mr. Williams has secured the store on King street, formerly occupied by Mr. Robert Brown, and has thereby greatly increased his floor space. New floors and ceilings of hard pine have been put in, and the sidewalls handsomely papered. All of the fixtures, including shelving, counters, racks, cigar cases, etc., are new and of the latest improved pattern. An overhead railroad, with a hoisting attachment, greatly facilitates the handling of heavy liquor barrels.

In the center of the store a handsome office of ash has been built, behind which is a small, private sample room.

The stock is entirely new, Mr. Williams having disposed of all the goods damaged by fire. A more complete line of wines, liquors, brandies and cigars, both imported and domestic, will be hard to find in any store outside of New York city.

The carpenter work was done by Lindsey & Co, and Peter Miller, and the painting by A. H. Pratt, all under the direction of Mr. John Wilkin.

DISCHARGES FROM STATE HOSPITALS

A New Law Regulating the Discharge of Recovered and Convalescent Patients.

The last Legislature amended the law in regard to the discharge of insane patients from State hospitals and the Governor having approved the bill it is now a law. The amendment is as follows:

§ 24 The managers of a State hospital may authorize the superintendent, on his written certificate being filed with the secretary of the board of managers, to discharge any patient, except one held upon an order of a court or judge having criminal jurisdiction in an action of proceeding arising out or a criminal offense, at any time, as follows:

1. A patient who, in his judgment, is recovered.

2 Any patient who is not recovered, but whose discharge, in the judgment of the superintendent, will not be detrimental to the public welfare; provided, however, that before making such certificate the superintendent shall satisfy himself, by sufficient proof, that friends or relatives of the patient are willing and financially able to receive and properly care for such patient.

Eloped With a Fourteen-Year-Old Girl.

John Gross, forty years old and a widower with three children, eloped from Walton, Sunday, with Ella, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Robert Stewart. They were married by Justice John Wright, of Trout Creek Mr. Stewart, who learned of the elopement shortly after the parties left Walton, pursued them and reached the justice's a few minutes after the ceremony. He took his daughter home with him and proposes to institute proceedings for the annulment of the marriage.

A Novel Weapon of Defense.

A Delaware county man, who claims to have been stopped by highwaymen on the road between Walton and Hamdem, says that he knocked down the man who was trying to get into his wagon by hitting him over the head with the buckle of the reins.

Rheumatism Cured.

"I have been suffering from rheumatism for the last two years, and have been treated by doctors for rheumatic fever. I did not find any benefit from the medicine they gave me. I was told to take Hood's Pills I did so and found relief at once. I then procured a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I found of great benefit to me. It gives an appetite and I heartily recommend it for what it has done for me." Mrs. A. Carrol, 832 8th avenue., New York, N. Y.
